

Alfonso de Orleans-Borbon, President, Racing-Engineering • Bentley '91, BS Finance

Racecar driver. Entrepreneur. Global citizen. Bentley business graduate.

Alfonso de Orleans-Borbon had auto racing in his blood. He also had his eye on a career in finance. So he headed to Bentley, where he gained the skills he needed to accelerate his career on Wall Street—and take advantage of new opportunities down the road. Today, with business enterprises in racing, shipbuilding, media, real estate, computers, agriculture and wine, Alfonso is putting his Bentley skills to work around the globe.
